

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Lisa Salvatore, Marketing Manager
443.872.5765
Lsalvatore@harbormagic.com

www.harbormagic.com

Pier 5 Hotel • Admiral Fell Inn • Brookshire Suites

NEW EXECUTIVE CHEF ANNOUNCED AT BALTIMORE'S HARBOR MAGIC HOTELS

Chef Brian Sullivan Brings Regional Cuisine with French and Asian Flare

BALTIMORE, MD – February 16, 2008 – Baltimore's Harbor Magic Hotels are excited to announce the hiring of Bryan Sullivan, the new Executive Chef for two of their properties – the Pier 5 Hotel and Brookshire Suites.

Bryan Sullivan is an American chef who prepares regional cuisine with a French and Asian flare. While working on his Bachelor of Science degree in Culinary Arts at Johnson and Wales University in Providence, Rhode Island, Chef Bryan began a mission to gain a variety of culinary experiences. His journey took him from the bakeries and country clubs of Rhode Island to the Great Southern Hotels of Ireland. After graduation Chef Bryan moved to Washington D.C. where he trained and worked at the Grand Hyatt hotel and eventually gained the experience of a lifetime working for Chef Michel Richard at the famous Citronelle Restaurant in Georgetown.

Returning home to Baltimore in 2001, Chef Bryan became the Executive Chef of the Admiral Fell Inn, a Harbor Magic Hotel located in Fells Point, for three years. He then moved on to Baldwin's Station in Carroll County for a two-year stint. Chef Bryan returned to downtown Baltimore in 2005 as Executive Chef at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

Along with his new position at the Pier 5 Hotel and Brookshire Suites, Bryan also teaches fun and exciting continuing education culinary classes at Anne Arundel Community College.

Chef Bryan is a member of the American Culinary Federation and also works with Baltimore International College recruiting culinary students to develop and mold into great chefs. He is proud to return to Harbor Magic Hotels as the Executive Chef of the Pier 5 Hotel and the Brookshire Suites. Stop downtown to visit Chef Bryan and enjoy the delightful cuisine and great events happening at Harbor Magic Hotels.

For more information about Harbor Magic Hotels, visit www.HarborMagic.com.

###